OPENING TIPS

- Colgate plays its first of two Kids Day games on consecutive Wednesdays when the Raiders take on Loyola in Baltimore. Tip time is 11:30 a.m.
- Colgate is coming off a record-setting performance that saw the Raiders outlast Army 100-93. At least 14 Colgate, Cotterell Court or opponent records were broken along with the Patriot League mark for combined points in a half (Army 58, Colgate 57).
- Abby Schubiger was one of those record-breakers after she connected on 10-of-11 field goals to score a career-high 20 points.
- The Raiders at 9-4 are off to the best start in program history.

COLGATE NOTEBOOK

Notes of interest on today's game against the Greyhounds

● Colgate and Loyola meet for the 13th time on the hardwood in a series that began when the Greyhounds joined the Patriot League in 2013-14. The Raiders hold a 7-5 series lead after sweeping last year's games 73-64 in overtime in Hamilton and 58-47 in Baltimore. Add a late season win in 2018 and Colgate is riding a modest three-game winning streak against the Greyhounds. Colgate head coach Bill Cleary is 4-2 against Loyola, with a 1-2 mark in Baltimore.

● Highest scoring game in Cotterell Court history. That's what Colgate Women's Basketball fans got Sunday for the price of admission as the Raiders outlasted – with a Capital O, as in offense – the visiting Black Knights 100-93. Colgate made 19 of its 26 field goal attempts in the second half – 19-of-26! – for 73.1 percent. And the Raiders lost the second half by a 58-57 score line. That total set a Patriot League record for combined points in one half (115).

● A few more highlights from Sunday's thriller: There were 13 ties and 16 lead changes ... No fewer than 14 Colgate, Cotterell Court or opponent records were broken, including Colgate's field goal percentage for a game at 63.3 and the Cotterell Court free throw percentage mark for a game with Colgate going 17-of-18 ... The Raiders missed their first free throw of the afternoon and then made 17 straight ... Army hit a Cotterell Court record-tying 14 3-pointers.

● Rachel Thompson with 19 points in each of her last two games is up to 989 for her career and within striking distance of becoming the 15th Division I Raider to reach 1,000 points.

● Abby Schubiger set a Colgate shooting record by making 10-of-11 from the field Sunday against Army en route to a career-high 20 points. The senior forward is up to third in the Patriot League at 52.7 percent from the floor and is 18th in scoring at an even 10.0. Schubiger's previous season scoring high was 4.2 as a sophomore.

● The Raiders continue to ride the best start in program history at 9-4. The previous best through 13 games was 8-5 by the 2003-04 Colgate squad that went on to sweep the Patriot League regular season and tournament titles.

● This year's 6-0 record at Cotterell Court marks the best start to a home season in program history. The 1997-98 Raiders held the previous record with five consecutive victories to open a season. The Colgate record during the Division I era for consecutive home victories at any point in the season is seven, set by the 2003-04 Raiders during their Patriot League championship stretch drive. That squad won its last six at home during the regular season and then captured No. 7 with a 71-60 victory at Cotterell Court for Colgate's only Patriot League title.

● The Raiders just completed the program's best regular season nonleague record (8-3, .727) and tied three other Colgate teams for the most nonconference wins. The 2003-04 Patriot League champions went 8-5 (.615) on their way to 21-10; the 1997-98 squad went 8-6 (.571) outside the Patriot League; and the 1990-91 Raiders went 8-7 (.533) nonconference in the Patriot League's debut season.

● Colgate is poised to continue its climb up the hoops ladder if this year's 2019-20 preseason poll and Preseason All-Patriot League Team are any indication. The Raiders are picked to finish sixth this season in voting by the league's 10 head coaches and 10 sports information directors. That's the best Colgate preseason position since 2010-11, when the Raiders were predicted to tie for sixth in what was then an eight-team league.

● Thompson also made a splash as one of five named to the Preseason All-Patriot League Team. Thompson is Colgate's first preseason selection since Megan Ballard earned the nod to begin 2005-06.

● Thompson is coming off a terrific junior season. She was voted onto both the All-Patriot League Second Team and Patriot League All-Defensive Team after leading the Raiders in scoring at 12.9, rebounding at 7.2, assists at 3.2 and steals at 2.5.

● Taylor Langan has made 11 of her last 21 3-point attempts to move into the Patriot League rankings at 13th (36.2 percent) ... Haley Greer is second in 3-pointers made with 13 and with 80 for her career needs just two more to reach the program's career top 15 ... Ava Williams leads the team in blocked shots with six and is second in plus-minus at +7.5 ... Alexa Brodie is second on the team in assists at 3.0 per game, third in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.4, and fourth in plus-minus at +6.9 ... Tegan Graham is fifth in the Patriot League in field goal percentage at 51.1 ... She's second on the team in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.8.

● Colgate's 37-point victory over Siena back on Dec. 4 was the largest for the program since an 84-37 triumph over Division III Puerto Rico-Mayaguez on Nov. 25, 2001. It missed by one point tying the record for largest margin of victory against a Division I opponent, set when Colgate opened its 1990-91 season with an 86-48 blowout at Northeastern.

● The 88-51 triumph over Siena was the fourth by 20 or more points, already tying the 2003-04 champions for most in one season in the Colgate Women's Basketball Division I era.

● Colgate has posted 27 assists in two games this season for their highest total in more than 22 years. The Raiders had 27 assists on 37 made field goals against Niagara back on Dec. 1, and then 27 on 38 baskets in the 100-93 thriller against Army. No Colgate team has been as generous since the Raiders handed out 29 assists in a 114-106 overtime loss to Canisius back on Jan. 22, 1997. The program record is 32 in a 96-82 home win over Bucknell on Feb. 20, 1991.

● The Raiders lead the Patriot League in assists at 17.3 and in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.3.

● Player of the Year candidate Rachel Thompson matched her career high with nine assists against Niagara. One more and she would have pocketed her first collegiate triple-double after scoring 14 to go with 11 boards.

● The Raider win against Army marked the 17th straight victory when scoring at least 70 points. Colgate is 8-0 this season when scoring 70-plus. This streak began after an 83-73 home loss to Brown back in December 2017.

● Thompson has jumped to 10th on the Colgate career steals list with 176, and is tied for 11th in assists with 263. Her three double-doubles this year give her 12 for her career. (See P. 4)

● Head coach Bill Cleary earned his 250th career coaching victory in Colgate's season-opening win. His record shows 258 wins against 218 losses in his 17th season. Cleary built programs from the ground up at Wilmington and Bloomsburg in the NCAA Division II ranks before being named Colgate head coach in March 2016.

BILL CLEARY

Head Coach, Fourth Season at Colgate

Bill Bill Cleary is putting his blueprint into place for the resurgence of Colgate Women's Basketball. He took over as the 10th head coach in Colgate Women's Basketball history in March 2016.

Already twice in his first three seasons, Cleary has guided the Raiders to sixth-place finishes -- despite preseason predictions of near the bottom of the Patriot League standings.

In 2018-19, the Raiders finished 12-17 overall for their best win total since 2004-05. Colgate also jumped to 8-10 in the Patriot League for its highest victory total and best winning percentage since 2003-04.

Rachel Thompson was selected to both the 2019 All-Patriot League Second Team and the Patriot League All-Defensive Team.

In Cleary's first season of 2016-17, the Raiders clinched sixth place in the Patriot League standings for the first time since 2011-12.

Cleary built successful programs in both of his previous head coaching stops, arriving at Colgate after eight seasons at Bloomsburg and five at Wilmington (Del.).

During his eight-year tenure at Bloomsburg, Cleary compiled a 164-69 (.704) overall record and a 97-42 (.698) mark in the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference. The Huskies won just eight games the year before Cleary's arrival, but he put together four consecutive NCAA tournament appearances from 2012-15, a PSAC title and five straight PSAC East Division crowns.

Bloomsburg's 102 wins during that four-year NCAA run were the most in school history, and the 2012 NCAA tournament bid was the program's first in 20 years.

Cleary during his time at Bloomsburg coached four PSAC East players of the year and four freshman of the year honorees.

Awards weren't limited to the student-athletes under Cleary, who three times was named PSAC East Coach of the Year and in 2015 earned WBCA Atlantic Region Coach of the Year. That season, he guided the Huskies to a 26-5 overall mark and a 20-2 record in the PSAC. The campaign ended in heartbreaking fashion at the NCAA regional final, a 72-69 overtime decision at the hands of eventual national champion California (Pa.) on the Cal home court.

During his eight years at Bloomsburg, Cleary recruited and coached six 1,000-point scorers.

The first head-coaching position for Cleary was at Wilmington (Del.), where he turned around another struggling program. The Wildcats in Cleary's first season of 2003-04 won two games for the sixth straight season. Four years later, Wilmington went 22-9 and captured an ECAC Division II title for its first championship in school history.

Cleary's career head coaching record through 16 seasons is 249-214 (.538). Colgate through three seasons under Cleary is 29-60.

A native of the Philadelphia suburb of Broomall, Cleary began his career with one season as an assistant men's basketball coach at Towson and two years as a men's basketball graduate assistant at Georgia Tech under Paul Hewitt. While in Atlanta, Cleary earned his master's degree in sports administration from Georgia State University in 2002.

Cleary is a 1998 graduate of Villanova University with a degree in political science. He and his wife, Jackie, are the parents of sons Billy and Chase.
