HEAD COACH TY GRACE

Tiesha "Ty" Grace enters her fifth season as head coach of the Bison women's basketball program.

In the 2018-19 season, Howard secured their second winning season in three years after finishing with an 18-13 record (10-6 MEAC). Along the way, Coach Grace saw four Bison earn conference postseason honors: Sarah Edmond (All-MEAC); Krislyn Marsh (All-Rookie); Jayla Thornton (All-MEAC) and Ayonna Williams (All-MEAC).

During the 2016-17 campaign, Grace led the Bison to a 16-13 overall record and an impressive 12-4 mark in the MEAC. Under Grace's direction, Howard earned the No. 2 seed in the 2017 MEAC Tournament, the highest during her tenure. Grace's coaching also led to her athletes being recognized by the conference. Howard had the 2017 Player of the Year and four All-MEAC selections on the squad due in part to her leadership.

Grace came to The Hilltop with impressive credentials, boasting nearly 20 years of coaching experience on every level of the National Collegiate Athletic Association along with a standout career in her days as a student-athlete.

"We are pleased to welcome Grace to the Howard family," said President Frederick. "We anticipate great things coming from our women's basketball team through her coaching and leadership."

Added Davis, "Coach Grace's success as a head coach at New Haven - on the court, in the community, and in the classroom - is remarkable and we are excited to welcome her to Howard. Her integrity, leadership style, coaching & recruiting ability, and commitment to excellence make her an exceptional fit to lead the program."

A 1999 graduate of New Haven, Grace took over at Howard after spending two successful seasons as the head coach at her alma mater. Grace won over 73 percent of her games (44-16) and led the Chargers to a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances. In 2014-15, New Haven posted the fourth-most victories in school history (26), set a school record with 16 Northeast-10 Conference wins and made its first trip to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight in nearly three decades after defeating 13th-ranked Stonehill College to win the East Region Championship.

"I would like to thank President Frederick and Ms. Davis for entrusting Howard's women's basketball program to me. The history and tradition of Howard are well-known and I am excited to be a part of that," said Grace. "This is a place where you can win, and it's been proven by those before me. I can't wait to get started."

Prior to New Haven, Grace spent seven combined seasons as a Division I assistant coach at Seton Hall University & the United States Military Academy. She served as the top assistant & recruiting coordinator at Big East Conference member Seton Hall from 2009-13, helping bring a pair of McDonald's All-Americans and a 25th ranked recruiting class to South Orange, New Jersey. Grace also helped develop an All-Big East Rookie Team member and two Second Team All-Big East selections for the Pirates. She spent most of her time at SHU coaching alongside Naismith Basketball Hall of Famer, Olympic Gold Medalist and current Connecticut Sun Head Coach Anne Donovan.

During Grace's three-year stint at Army (2006-09), the Black Knights recorded a then-program-best 24 victories in the 2006-07 campaign, including a record 12-game winning streak, and featured a Patriot League Player of the Year, two Rookies of the Year and a Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Grace earned her first head coaching experience at Division III Ramapo College of New Jersey from 2004-06 and served as a Division I assistant at Fairleigh Dickinson University from 1999-2004. She began her formal coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Hartford from 1998-99.

A 2010 inductee into the New Haven Athletics Hall of Fame, Grace is one of only two Chargers to record 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds for her career, totaling 1,347 points and 1,047 boards with 47 double-doubles from 1994-98.

In 2017, she participated in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Center for Coaching Excellence (CCE) Program. In the 2004 summer, Coach Grace took part in the Achieving Coaching Excellence (ACE) program.

2019-20 Howard Women's Basketball Coaching Staff

TAMORIA HOLMES

Assistant Coach | Recruiting Coordinator

Tamoria Holmes enters her third season as Howard's women's basketball assistant coach after joining the staff in May of 2017. Holmes is back to the nation's capital and at her alma mater to work with team's guards. Her other responsibilities include recruiting, game and practice preparation, camps, social media, alumni relations and community service projects. A member of Howard's 1,000-point club, Holmes earned Second Team All-HBCU All-America honors.

BRIAN DAVIS

Assistant Coach

Brian Davis was named an Assistant Coach for the Howard University women's basketball program in the summer of 2017. Davis came to Howard after serving as an Assistant Coach for the women's basketball team at Towson University. He was responsible for guard/wing development, recruiting and scouting at Towson. Prior to his tenure at Towson, Davis spent the previous seven seasons as an Assistant Coach at Hampton University.

DONNIE STITH

Assistant Coach

Donnie Stith enters his season year as a Bison after being announced as Howard University women's basketball assistant coach. Previously, Stith was the head coach at the Boo Williams Summer League in Virginia Beach, Virginia. He was responsible for developing and communicating goals that encourage athletic, academic and personal growth of individuals and the team throughout the summer and Amateur Athletic Union (AAU) season.
